

---

Tom Hanks

WORKSHEET A

Tom Hanks, born in California in 1956, is one of the world's most popular movie stars, often coming near the top of polls in which the public are asked to choose their favorite actor.

He began his acting career in television comedies before making the step up to Hollywood in the mid-1980s. Since then he has played lots of different roles and has won many awards, including two Oscars. His latest leading role is in Angels and Demons, the story of a plot to destroy the Vatican, which could become one of the most successful movies of 2009.

Like some other Hollywood actors, Hanks is interested in environmental and political issues: for example, he encourages the use of electric cars (and drives one himself) as a way of cutting carbon emissions, and was one of Barack Obama's many celebrity supporters during the 2008 presidential election.

The following are just three of his well-known movies:

Forrest Gump* (1994)

Hanks won an Oscar for the title role, that of a kind-hearted man with a slight intellectual disability who influences US history by being present at various crucial moments – but without ever realizing his own importance. One of the most famous lines from the movie is “Run, Forrest, run,” which Hanks says are still the words people most often shout at him when they see him in the street.

Apollo 13* (1995)

Hanks played the astronaut James Lovell in the true story of the 1970 NASA space mission. The objective of the mission is for US astronauts to land on the moon for the third time (the first time was in 1969), but after an explosion inside the spacecraft, the aim becomes that of simply getting the astronauts back safely to Earth, which at first seems almost impossible.

Saving Private Ryan* (1999)

Hanks played a US army officer, John H. Miller, during the Second World War. After the American troops have landed on the beaches of Normandy in France in June, 1944, Miller and his men are given the unusual mission of finding a soldier, Private Ryan, whose three brothers have all been killed – the US commanders want to send the soldier home so that his mother doesn't lose all four of her sons. Directed by Steven Spielberg, the movie is perhaps best known for the shockingly realistic 25-minute battle scene at the very beginning.

---

Tom Hanks

WORKSHEET B

Exercise 1

Team A

Below are the answers to some questions about the text on Worksheet A. Work with your team and write the questions. When you have finished, Team B will have to answer them as part of a quiz.

1. In California.
  2. It is about a plot to destroy the Vatican.
  3. He plays a US army officer in the Second World War.
  4. It took place in 1970.
  5. Because they don't want his mother to lose all four of her sons.
  6. In June, 1944.
  7. Because it's a way of cutting carbon emissions.
  8. It was simply to get the astronauts back safely to Earth.
- .....

Team B

Here are the answers to some questions about the text on Worksheet A. Work with your team and write the questions. When you have finished, Team A will have to answer them as part of a quiz.

1. He has won two Oscars.
2. They shout, "Run, Forrest, run!"
3. Steven Spielberg.
4. It is for American astronauts to land on the moon for the third time.
5. In 1969.
6. He supported him during the 2008 presidential election.
7. By being present at various crucial moments.
8. In the mid-1980s.

Tom Hanks

WORKSHEET C

Exercise 2

The text from Worksheet A has been copied below, but contains some mistakes. Twenty of the words in bold are incorrect, and five are correct. Decide which are incorrect, and correct them.

Tom Hanks, born in California in 1956, is one of the world's most popular movie stars, often coming near the top of (1) polls in which the public are asked to choose their favorite actor.

He began his acting (2) carear in television (3) comedias before making the step up to Hollywood in the (4) middle-1980s. Since then he (5) played lots of different roles and has won many (6) wards, including two Oscars. His latest leading role is in Angels and Demons, the story of a (7) plot to destroy the Vatican, which could become one of the most successful movies of 2009.

Like some other Hollywood actors, Hanks is interested in (8) environment and political issues: for example, he encourages the use of electric cars (and drives one himself) as a way of cutting carbon (9) missions, and was one of Barack Obama's many celebrity supporters during the 2008 presidential election.

The following are just three of his well-known movies:

Forrest Gump (1994)

Hanks won an Oscar for the title role, that of a kind-(10) heart man with a slight intellectual (11) misability who influences US history by being (12) the present at various (13) crucal moments – but without ever realizing his own (14) importance. One of the most famous (15) lines from the movie is “Run, Forrest, run,” which Hanks says are still the words people most often shout at him when they see him in the street.

Apollo 13 (1995)

Hanks played the astronaut James Lovell in the true story of the 1970 NASA space mission. The objective of the mission is for American astronauts to (16) landing on the moon for the third time (the first time was in 1969), but after an explosion inside the (17) spacecrab, the aim becomes that of simply getting the astronauts (18) forward safely to Earth, which (19) in first seems almost impossible.

Saving Private Ryan (1999)

Hanks played a US army officer, John H. Miller, during the Second World War. After the American troops have landed on the beaches of Normandy in France in June, 1944, Miller and his men are (20) gave the unusual mission of finding a soldier, Private Ryan, (21) who's three brothers have all (22) killed – the US commanders want to send the soldier (23) to home so that his mother doesn't lose all four of her sons. Directed by Steven Spielberg, the movie is perhaps best known for the shockingly (24) realistic 25-minute battle (25) seen at the very beginning.